Dear Tord Riemann,

Thank you for your inquiry. If you have any concerns regarding a specific case, you can send them directly to the Editors in Chief of the journal for a first assessment.

Editors in Chief:
Theoretical Physics
G. Weiglein (georg.weiglein@desy.de)
Experimental Physics
S. Bethke (bethke@mppmu.mpg.de)

The case will be then examined, typically by both the Editors in Chief and the Publishing Editor. If you have any further questions or need any clarifications do not hesitate to contact me again, I will be glad to help.

With kind regards,
Angela Di Giuseppe

Betreff: a question

Dear publisher of EPJC,

I have a general question which is not covered by the answers in your faq [or other webpage] <http://www.epj.org/faq.html>, called from guidelines for authors

http://www.epj.org/guidelines_epjc.html#Permissions

I cannot see any regulations of the journal for the case that authors use scientific material taken from other sources and not mentioning that - plagiarism.

How do you proceed with that?

I would be thankful for getting an answer to this kind of problem, because I am concerned about a specific case.

With my best regards, Tord Riemann
